

Course Spotlight

Biology of Sex

BIOL 1034

Pathways Core

Outcome:

Reasoning in the Natural Sciences

Pathways Integrative

Outcome:

Ethical Reasoning

Prerequisites:

None

Contact:

Dr. Ignacio Moore

itmoore@vt.edu

About Biology of Sex

This course offers an integrated review of the subject of sex from a scientific viewpoint for both science and non-science majors. The course covers all aspects of sex, from genes to behavior and evolution, but from a very objective and scientific perspective. Students will engage with a topic of general interest to learn the basic tenets of science, how it is performed, how to evaluate it, and how it interacts with society.

pathways.prov.vt.edu

UNDERGRADUATE
ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
VIRGINIA TECH

PATHWAYS GENERAL EDUCATION

Office of General Education | jennigal@vt.edu | (540) 231-4451
Burruss Hall, Suite 104 (MC 0717), 800 Drillfield Dr., Blacksburg, VA 24061